New National Bank To Build Soon

Plans Are Under Way for Structure in Narberth

Progress is being made in the organization of the new Narberth National Bank and plans will soon be out for the bank building, which will be two stories high, the first floor being occupied by the new bank and the second floor will have offices, which will be rented. The location at the corner of Haverford avenue and Essex avenue, is an ideal one on account of its nearness to the business center of Narberth, as well as its accessibility for the people coming and going on the trains.

A great many favorable comments have been heard about the formation of this new bank, which will be a Narberth institution in every sense of the word, as the majority of the stock will be held by Narberth people and nearly all of the directors will be from Narberth.

This national bank will be directly under the supervision of the United States Bank Examiners. As it will be a member of the Federal Reserve System, it will also be subject to its rules and regulations, and will have connections with a Philadelphia bank so that deposits can be made in a central location in Philadelphia for accounts carried in the Narberth National Bank. It is also planned to give the best banking service possible, and will be a real help to the community.

The time limit for receiving subscriptions for the stock of the new bank has been placed as September 30, and as there will be an over-subscription, it is important that anyone wishing stock advise one of the members of the organization committee, so that their requirements can be noted before closing the subscription list.

WOMEN VOTERS

In Second Regional Conference.

Miss Gertrude Ely's home at Bryn Mawr was again the attractive scene of the second regional conference of the National League of Women Voters on Thursday of last week. Miss Ely is director of the second region, which includes the States of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland, and last June she entertained the representatives of these five States in the same delightful manner.

Owing to Miss Ely's attendance at the League of Nations in Geneva, Mrs. Charles Tiffany, of New York, Miss Ely's sister, substituted as hostesses and in welcoming the guests at "Wyndham," read a cablegram from Miss Ely which announced that the future of the League of Nations is assured. It was an all-day meeting, the 125 women presented being entertained at luncheon between the business sessions.

Mrs. John O. Miller, president of the Pennsylvania League, presided at the morning session, which was given over to the discusion of increasing membership in the league and to the "get-out-the-vote" campaign. Five States were represented in these discussions. Mrs. C. P. Fowler, of Narberth, told of the picturesque caravan which is to tour Pennsylvania starting from Independence Square October 1. The Delaware League is to conduct a similar highway tour during October. Mrs. Tiffany, of the New York City League, described the ingenious methods of her wide-awake committee to promote registration and get out the vote by appeal to voters by means of radio, moving pictures, megaphones, covers on milk bottles, slips in dry-goods, etc.

In the afternoon, Miss Julia Lathrop, vice president of the National League, made a stirring plea for the ratification of the child labor amendment, and Miss Ruth Morgan, third vice president of the National League, discussed the World Court.

The conference, before adjourning, sent to Miss Ely a cablegram of good wishes and congratulations upon her approaching birthday.

L. M. OPENS SEASON

WITH BERWYN AT ARDMORE TOMORROW

Lower Merion High opens its football season at Ardmore Saturday afternoon with Berwyn High and all indications point for a record turnout of rooters. The game will start at 2.30 o'clock.

The Maroon and White students expect to find little difficulty in overcoming their first opponent as Berwyn was beaten 71-0 last year, but the game will provide the first real test for the new eleven Coach Forstburg has built up for this season, and the L. M. rooters are anxious to see how this new eleven compares with the championship aggregation of last year. Main interest will center in the men that the Ardmore mentor has selected to fill the holes created at right and left end and in the backfield by the graduation of Peterson, Folwell, Scull and Pop Fleming.

Coach Forstburg, following his usual practice, refused to give out the names of the men he will use until just before the game. The above line-up, however, will probably be the one which he will send in to start the tilt with Berwyn.

In this aggregation, Fort, Schwartz, Kurtz, Faulk and Mowry are all new men. The lettermen are Kuen, Paul Scull, Captain Frank Peabody and Morris.

Two of the returning lettermen, Dilworth and Lockwood, will be out of the first game. Dilworth is recuperating from a minor operation on his foot and Lockwood is on the disabled list with an injured shoulder. A third letterman, Al Odiorne, is back in school, but will probably be kept out of action for the first few games through scholastic ineligibility. Two more lettermen, Hill, the flashy colored end, and Costello, were scheduled to get back, but both will be among the missing. Costello has left school and Hill has tranferred to Radnor High.

Tickets for the football games were placed on sale at the school Monday and on Tuesday cheerleaders were chosen. Louis McMakin, Gould and Charles Mecke were picked to lead the yelling.

Tickets, which are being distributed in two batches, are being sold by the Athletic Association. One batch, a $2 combination ticket, admits the purchaser to all football, baseball and basketball games and to all track meets. The other series, sold at $1, admits only to football games or to baseball or any of the other sports that the purchaser may elect. The gate admission to the football games will be the usual 25 cents.

Printed schedules of the grid games were distributed among the students this week. Ten games in all are listed. Six of these are home games, four are away.

Contrary to last year's practice the majority of the games this year will be played on Saturday. Only two contests, both away from home scraps, will be played on Friday. The Saturday games will all start at 2.30 P. M.

Following is the gridiron schedule for the 1924 season:

Sept. 27, (Sat.) Berwyn H. S., Home.
Oct. 3, (Fri.) Northeast H. S., Away.
Oct. 10, (Fri.) Cheltenham H. S., Away.
Oct. 18, (Sat.) Upper Darby H. S., Home.
Oct. 25, (Sat.) Abington H. S., Home.
Nov. 1, (Sat.) West Chester H. S., Away.
Nov. 8, (Sat.) Lansdowne H. S., Home.
Nov. 15, (Sat.) Pottstown H. S., Home.
Nov. 22, (Sat.) Radnor H. S., Away.
Nov. 29, (Sat.) Alumni, Home.

Members of the Narberth ball team will journey to Garrett Hill tomorrow to play that team. They will be led by John D. Conley, an ardent fan. This post-season contest will be called at 3 o'clock.

Tuberculosis Clinic.

After October 1, 1924, the State Tuberculosis Clinic and General Clinic, located at the Court House Annex, Norristown, Pa., will hold its clinic on Friday afternoons at 2.30 o'clock.

Street Loan Group Out After Votes

Neighborhood Chairmen to Push Campaign

A citizens' meeting in favor of the Street Bond Issue was held last Friday evening and at that time the Narberth Street Improvement Association was formed in order to provide a non-partisan organization by means of which this issue could be brought to the attention of all the voters. The Association hopes to appoint neighborhood chairmen throughout the borough so that by means of them complete information can be easily provided to everyone who is interested. The complete list of neighborhood chairmen will be published soon.

At Friday's meeting one of the citizens present brought forth a strong argument in favor of the project. He said:

"If large signs reading, 'This street will be paved next year' should be erected now along Montgomery avenue at the end of each unpaved Narberth street, there would be rejoicing along the entire Main Line, and the number of congratulations which would reach Narberth voters from the outside would be sufficient to determine an overwhelming victory for the Street Bond Issue at the November election. That may seem like a strong statement but it is well inside the range of probabilities. The only impression that many Main Line residents get of Narberth is the unsightly appearance of those unpaved streets which are daily seen by thousands who pass up and down Montgomery pike.

"There is no community on the Main Line where the average appearance of the individual dooryards is better and where the individual residents have spent more time and thought and money to beautify their immediate surroundings. There are many communities, in various parts of the country, where large sums of money have been spent in a vain endeavor to educate the people to beautify their grounds. This is already an accomplished fact in Narberth, but there is a sharp contrast here between the attractive private properties and the utterly neglected, unpaved public streets.

"There are certainly a large majority of Narberth people who are keenly interested in the fair appearance and good name of their community. If all of them will go to the polls on November 4 and vote 'Yes' for the Street Bond Issue, this blemish on Narberth's appearance will be removed for good and all. The Bond Issue will provide for the permanent improvement of all the remaining unpaved and built-up streets in the borough. It will increase the value of all property in the borough because it will make Narberth more generally desirable as a place of residence."

Speaks at Norristown.

Mrs. C. P. Fowler, of Elmwood avenue, chairman of the Montgomery county "get-out-the-vote" campaign of the League of Women Voters, was the speaker at the meeting of the Norristown league last Wednesday.

Belmont Track is Sold for Building

$300,000 Realized on Old Race Course

The Belmont Driving Club property on Meeting House lane, will be sold for $300,000 to a real estate dealer and the club disbanded.

This decision was reached after a lively meeting of stockholders Saturday afternoon in the office of Ferdinand D. Fleming, president of the organization, No. 1516 Chestnut street. The vote stood 590 shares for the sale, 205 against. This done, the 980 shares of George M. Moore were voted "aye," making the total vote for the sale 1570.

Mr. Moore's stock was not voted until the minority stockholders had decided which way the controversy should go, according to a previous agreement. Mr. Moore had arranged to vote with the winning faction.

The question of selling the club had been debated for a long time. Mr. Fleming led the faction that wanted the club to continue, while Joshua Evans, former president, led the stockholders who wanted to dispose of the 75-acre property.

The first question to be argued was over adjournment until Friday, in order to allow more stockholders to be present. All possible proxies had been obtained for Saturday's meeting.

This suggestion was voted down, 585 to 145. John W. Emery, a former police captain of Philadelphia, led the faction that wished to postpone the meeting. He declared the club worth at least $400,000, and insisted that sum could be realized if there was a delay in the sale.

Mr. John R. K. Scott, of Cynwyd, upon the other hand, argued for a sale, pointing out that the shares, costing originally $50 each, would return 200 per cent. on the investment at the price offered.

Mr. Evans urged the sale be ratified at once. David Wallenstein, an attorney, represented the purchaser, a builder, who plans to cut the track up into lots and erect homes on them.

A bid for the track was made to the driving club last year by Mr. Frank H. Mancill, local realtor, who also wanted the racing tract for realty development.

Said President Fleming, Saturday, in his argument against the sale of the racing track:

"The price offered for the property is inadequate. From the present outlook, the club is in good condition and will be able to carry along and pay not only its running expenses and floating indebtedness but as soon as expenses of litigation caused by Mr. Evans and his associates are paid, create a surplus to be used as the stockholders may direct."

The agreement of sale provides that the sum received for the property be a proffer of $175,000 to George Moore converted into a trust fund, after all expenses are paid, and the remaining amount to be distributed among the stockholders.

Mr. Evans denied there was any

TODAY'S GAME IS AT CYNWYD SCHOOL GROUNDS

Bala-Cynwyd won the toss for today's game, the final in the pennant play-off series, and the rubber shall therefore occur at the Cynwyd School grounds. Gibson and Vockel will be the contending pitchers once again. Both teams are on edge for the fray and the best baseball of the season will, no doubt, be the result. Narberth won the championship of the first half of the season and Bala-Cynwyd won the championship of the second half. Each team has won a game in the play-off series for the Main Line pennant and today's game is intended to finally settle the issue.

Game starts at 3.15 P. M.

Championship Ball Game at Cynwyd

Twin-City Players Won the Last One

When Bobbie Gibson has two men down, then look for the jinx to arrive, or shall we just call it the zero hour? It occurred in the first game of the pennant play-off series at the home grounds, but on that occasion its ominous advent was rendered innocuous by a previous plethora of runs. Now it comes again, the second game of the series, and this time, goaded to a fury by the futility of the first attempt, it succeeds in its malevolent purpose to lay our heroes low. In their own backyard, Bala-Cynwyd won the game by a score of two to nothing, two runs almost handed to them on a highly burnished silver platter, two runs, two runs.

It's a tale of mournful numbers, of wail and woe, with its big chapter having to do with that inexplicable lethargy which allowed the ball to land safe in the right field garden, when the vigor and vim which ought to be expected in a championship contest would have easily made it the third and final out. And then the two runs came in, two runs, two runs.

That's all there is, there isn't any more, because an extra inning game would have meant a Narberth victory, that's sure, as the old see-it-through stuff started to arrive about the ninth, and one more session, in the opinion of the seasoned spectators, would would have copped the cup in howling fashion for America's finest suburb. As it is, one more chance remains to us and we know they shall not fail. With firm purpose and high resolve, they shall go forth on this Saturday afternoon at the Cynwyd School grounds and throw back those pretenders who are now so perilously close to that diamond distinction which belongs to Narberth alone, and our ball club must see to it that the blue ribbon is safely ensconced once again, midst lace and lavender, right where it belongs in the borough's hope chest. They shall not pass.

It was a game of great pitching. Vockel got better support. Gibson played in harder luck. Each gave the same quartet of real hits. A single was the limit for both sides. Quaile's two-bagger was a gift. The ball was mailed from left field. Next time try special delivery. Burns played hard. He caught them wherever they were. Gene

Who Dances With Miss America?

Shieks and Shrieks at Great Country Fair

Every year this big event brings forth some new and startling surprise, but this year's fair promises to far surpass all previous events. The committee has tried to keep these wonderful surprises under cover, but good news travels fast. The first intimation we had of this wonderful event was the unusual run on Hair Groom in Doc Howard's drug store. It seemed that the whole male population of Narberth was about to blossom forth as sheiks. And all because it is strongly rumored that Miss Ruth Malcomson, recently crowned Miss Ameriica at the Atlantic City Beauty Pageant, will attend the Narberth County Fair and dance with some lucky man.

Come early and stay late and bring the family. All the old features that have made every previous fair a huge success will all be there, from hot dogs to chocolate buds.

The big Midway will be full of many new and startling features such as horse racing, fortune telling, dancing, etc.

Don't miss these new features. Twenty blooded horses, the finest racing stock in the country will race every hour. That famous jockey, George Rose, will ride Spark Plug against heavy odds. This is the only official appearance of this famous pair before the great International Sweepstakes.

Have your forutne told by the seeress who foretold prohibition and the Johnstown Flood.

Dance to the wonderful strains of Signor Locatellis' Royal Italian Jazz Band.

Who will dance with Miss America? Everybody has a chance because Bob Fritz is ineligible.

As usual cakes, candies, etc., will be on sale and those who come first will have the best choice.

Don't miss it. This year's fair is the biggest and best ever held in Narberth.

NEW ASSOCIATION FORMED

To Take Up Problems of Boy Scouts in Narberth.

On Wednesday, October 1, at 8 o'clock, there will be held at the Scout headquarters, the first meeting of the newly formed Narberth Fathers' Association, to which all men interested in the welfare of our boys and Scout movement are cordially invited and urged to attend.

The Scout Committee and Assistant Scoutmaster will be present at the meeting to answer questions and explain the situation in view of the resignation earlier in the year of Mr. Patten, who acted as Scoutmaster for several years, and that of his successor, "Bill" Durbin, who found that he was unable to give the necessary time to the work which makes considerable demands on the efforts and patience of any man who endeavors to undertake it.

The Fathers' Association has been formed primarily to sponsor the movement and to enable the fathers of the boys now in the troop and those likely to become members to take an active co-operative interest in the Scout welfare of their lads. The committee hopes, therefore, that all men interested in this will endeavor to be on hand. There are no membership dues in the association and all you are asked to give is some time and thought.

Please be present at 8 o'clock promptly so that the various matters to be discussed will not have to be repeated for the benefit of latecomers.

To Present "Borough Babies."

The far-famed St. Margaret's Minstrels will make their third annual appearance during November, when "Borough Babies" will be presented for the first time on any stage.

Practically all of the old favorites will appear and the cast will be augmented by several newcomers.

The definite dates of the performances will be announced later, together with details of the distribution of gifts to babies born in Narberth.

Please renew promptly.

NARBERTH JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

At Friday assembly, on September 19, Constitution Week was recognized by brief exercises consisting of patriotic songs, the reading by Miss Jenkins of portions of Longfellow's Building of the Ship and the explanation by Mr. Wilson of some of the important features of the Constitution. Following this, Miss Worth told the school about some of the interesting things and places she saw in Europe during the past summer.

Miss Fluck, teacher of third grade, who has been ill since the beginning of school, expects to return to her duties on September 29. Meanwhile Mrs. Fretz, who formerly taught this grade, has been carrying on the work with her customary efficiency.

On Monday Miss George, a representative of Houghton, Mifflin & Co., demonstrated to the primary teachers the Bolenius Method of Reading.

Monday evening the Board of Directors gave the annual get-acquainted reception to the teachers. Most of the teachers were present and all enjoyed the evening's entertainment.

The enrollment of pupils has now reached 621, distributed as follows:

1st grade	77
2d grade	77
3d grade	71
4th grade	69
5th grade	67
6th grade	67
7th grade	76
8th grade	76
9th grade	41

The enlarged enrollment has been apparent in the lunch room, where 200 or more are being served daily and 300 on stormy days.

This year the boys expect to have the largest athletic program ever attempted in the Narberth school. There will be six teams in the following season which are: Baseball, soccer, tennis, volley ball, track and basketball. At present the big issue is soccer. We seem to have good school spirit. Each day 30 or more candidates report so a good team is expected. We had a meeting at which the following were elected:

Bob Foote, captain; Jerry Casey, manager; Dick Staley, assistant manager.

The first practice game will be with Lower Merion Alumni (the freshman class at Narberth last year) on Friday, October 3. ALL OUT! For, although it is a preseason game, we expect good playing.

Twenty mothers have accepted invitations to a "Get-Acquainted" party in Miss Worth's Sixth A class.

This year the "Dalton Plan" is being tried in a special section of the eighth and ninth grades. Everyone in the section seems to like it.

Miss Mahr reports all the children are back looking 100 per cent. physically and mentally awake.

Mrs. Wise is the pianist for Junior Assembly this year.

Every Friday morning the teachers have some special entertainment in assembly.

If the weather continues to be favorable the girls will have hockey practice after school and the prospect for a successful season is bright.

The Seventh A section is going to celebrate every month there is no tardiness with a hike or a party—It looks as if they might have to have one.

In the same room we expect to see some real interior decorating as they are laying in a supply of ferns.

The eighth special class has charge of the column in "Our Town" this year instead of the ninth grade which had it last year.

Editors for this issue.

IT WAS A HUMMER

Yep! That's the version of nearly 70 men and boys regarding the outing to Valley Forge conducted by the H. C. Cara Men's Class of the Narberth Presbyterian Bible School last Saturday afternoon. One would have thought that the men had lopped 20 years off their ages to look at the sport paraphernalia tucked away in the cars that carried the crowd to the park; and say! after that customary baseball game between the Benedicts and the youngsters was over, the boys thought so too—for please note that the married men were on the long end of a 9-to-4 score.

They say that Andy used to pitch semi-pro ball out around Pittsburgh. Well, if Barney Dreyfuss knew the cunning that still rested in that good right arm, methinks the Pirates would sign him to win the pennant for them. Semi-pro, did I say? Well, I reckon the boys thought he was some sure enough professional ere the game was finished. The only kick made by the unmarried ones was from John McNiven, his objection being that Andy wouldn't groove one shoulder high for him that could be labeled for a homer. (They say some of the men are still sore and that Doc Howard did a land office business in Sloan's Liniment and Rubbing Alcohol.)

While the big game was in progress, those who dislike so strenuous a sport resorted to indoor baseball out of doors, and to pitching quoits with horse shoes. About the time that all the horse shoe tossers had been eliminated by "Champeen" Steckbeck, some kind soul blew the dinner whistle. "Dinner time for the rest of the folks, but just 6 o'clock for me," said Adam Wilson; but maybe Chef Adam's dinner didn't taste good, though. No "hot dogs," either, but lots of roast bif and baked potatoes and sinkers and coffee. Yum! yum! What a whale of a difference it makes out of doors; and after that dinner, speeches, too, and prizes.

But the sad part is that 7 bells, the hour of departure, came all too soon—and that means au revoir for another season—that is for the picnic part. If any unattached man (as far as church affiliation goes) misses the regular Sunday meetings at 12.15 P. M., there is only one conclusion and that is that he doesn't care to associate with red-blooded, two-fisted, whole-souled, Peter-type of men; and the teacher is a he-man, too. The Pittsburgh bunch thought they had a real teacher "back home," and I reckon they did, too; but they are willing to admit that Sam Shope is in a class by himself. Drop in and hear him. There is a Glad-Hand Committee to meet you. We had 44 last Sunday, but watch us grow. You missed half your life if you were not at Valley Forge. The other half awaits you at Windsor and Grayling avenues every Sunday morning. Come in and let Dr. Shope help you find it.

Epworth League.

The installation service, which was held last Sunday evening, was of great value to everyone present. Rev. Dawson, after installing the new officers, gave a most inspiring message. His theme was "The Challenge to the Youth of Today."

There were more older folk present last Sunday. The league appreciates the co-operation and their attendance at the league's services.

Epworth League's meeting this Sunday, the 28th, at 6.45 P. M. The speaker will be Mr. H. A. Frye. His topic is "The Outlook." He will be assisted by the league quartet.

Monday, the 29th, at 8 o'clock, business and social meeting at the church. Everyone is invited to these meetings.

Missionary Society to Meet.

The Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church will hold an open meeting next Wednesday at 2 P. M. Mrs. Compton will be the leader and Mrs. Henry the hostess.

Miss Lucy Powell, a missionary from Allahabad, India, will be the speaker. All women of the church are invited to attend.

Juniors Open Season.

On Tuesday, October 7, at the home of Ruth Jones, 103 South Narberth avenue, the Junior Community Club of Narberth will hold its first meeting of this season. All the old members come out in full force and bring with them any girls they can interest in joining our organization.

CYNWYD BEATS NARBERTH

Davis never lets up. Vockel's scalp will hang today. Epper Yowell made a splendid throw to the plate. It saved one run. John Dickie was on his job. Three times he searched the skies and three times he found it. Bunt hitting was a scarce article. The folks looked for more of it. They thought that was one way to get Vockel. He's been a hard nut on three occasions. It's now time to get his number. We just heard what you said. "It's always easy to play ball from the bleachers." All right, then, we won't say another word. It's up to you to win today. The score:

LARGER ORCHESTRA

For Main Line Aggregation This Year.

Fifty-five players reported for the first rehearsal of the Main Line Orchestra last week. Besides the regular members who have been with the organization since its beginning three years ago, many new faces were seen in all choirs of the orchestra. The enrollment now includes players from almost every point along the Main Line and also from Highland Park, Darby, Oakmont, Llanerch and Philadelphia.

With this enlarged orchestra Mr. Vogel, conductor, feels confident that this will be the most successful season the orchestra has yet had.

"The program which the orchestra will present at the first concert will be the most interesting it has yet undertaken," he said following rehearsal. "This is made possible by the experience which the orchestra has now had and also by the promising new material which we have this year. For the present season we plan to make the programs more interesting by giving a careful combination of symphonic work and the lighter classical numbers."

It is further stated that there is still room for a few more experienced players. Those who wish to play in the orchestra should report for the second rehearsal in St. Mary's Church, Ardmore, next Thursday evening.

THE NEW BOOKS

Review by Members of the Library Staff.

Five members of the Library Staff have prepared the following reviews of the new books purchased during August by the Community Library. Mrs. E. A. Muschamp, librarian in charge on Friday afternoons and the official "reviewer," has thus had opportunity for reading such books as came her way in her vacation retreat in Vermont with no other purpose than pure enjoyment in the tale. She will be on duty again next month.

"In a Shantung Garden," by Louise Jordan Miln; here, with the description of the wonders of a Chinese garden and home is woven a love story of a Chinese girl and an American man together with the business intrigue of several nations; thus giving an insight into Chinese life and another view of the yellow problem.

"A Passage to India," by E. M. Forster, is a novel presenting a keen and sympathetic analysis of English and Indian mind and character in the contacts of colonial life in India. It is a study full of humor and irony held together by a love interest.

"Deep in the Hearts of Men," by Mary E. Waller. This is a clean, wholesome story likely to be popular, a story of the industrial question of today. Adrien Powers, the principal character in the book, strong in his belief in his freedom to work anywhere he chooses, uncontrolled by unions, returns to his father's mill where labor is unionized. The book is a forceful, vivid story of the struggle between the labor principles of the father and the son. Several romances are included in the tale and an illuminating description of the home life of the miners and their families.

"I'll Show You the Town." Alec Deupree, an assistant professor of Latin at Columbia University, has always been considered a "safe" companion for women. He was always being called upon to "show the town" to visitors coming from his home town in the west. By various circumstances he finds himself bound to look out for three women and to "show them the town." One is a young heiress from the Far West, one a wealthy widow from his home town, who was expected to richly endow his college, and the third is the sweetheart of his college days, who married another man and has now left him to come to New York. The author take his hero through many laughable situations, also through some compromising ones. However, in the end he falls in love with the right girl—and even the endowment fund for the college is assured.

NEW BUILDING PLANNED

Since last week there have been a number of inquiries for one and two shares, and it is hoped that all those who desire stock even if they only want one or two shares, will see that their names are placed on the subscription list promptly.

As stated last week the capital stock wil be $50,000, divided into 500 shares of $100 each, with a paid in surplus of $25,000, or $50 a share, making a total cost of the stock $150 a share, or a total paid in capital and surplus of $75,000.

The first call for payment on this stock will be October 15, when $50 a share will be required; the second call will be November 15, when $50 a share will be required, and the last call will be December 15, when the balance, or $50, a share will be required.

As soon as the plans are approved bids will be asked for the construction of the building, and the contracts closed, and it is hoped to start the building within the next 60 days.

The Organization Committee have offered to explain anything in connection with this new bank and to take subscriptions for any amount up to 25 shares, which is the limit that any one can hold, reserving the right on account of over-subscription, to cut down the allotment of stock.

Dr. Clarence T. Faries, Mr. Ralph S. Dunne and Mr. Carl B. Metzger, on the Organization Committee, have the subscription lists and will be very glad to add the name of any reader to them.

BELMONT TRACK SOLD

reason for selling the club property excepting to protect the stockholders. He pointed out that George Moore had obtained more than a majority of the stock and Mr. Moore agreed to sell providing the sale plan was ratified by a majority of the minority stockholders.

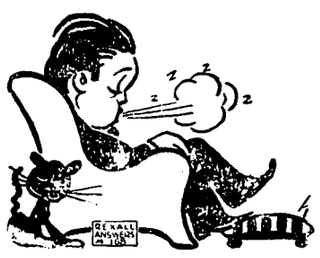

"Horse racing has not proved profitable here," said Mr. Evans. "The property of the Belmont Driving Club, therefore, was unprofitable, and the question of selling it was based entirely on this situation. The club is not making any money now, so why continue an unprofitable venture when $300,000 can be realized from it?"

After some controversy among the divided stockholders this spring, the Belmont track was rented to automobile race promoters for a series of eight races, the last of which was held last Saturday. Some of the stockholders, who were Main Line residents, voted against the auto proposition because of the undesirable characters the auto races would bring out to the suburbs. The Neighborhood Club of Bala-Cynwyd also entered protest at the time, but to no avail.

A number of young folks, former residents of Pittsburgh, enjoyed a corn and wiener roast last Tuesday evening in the woods near Woodbine avenue.

Dr. Harry Hartley announces the suspension of practice from September 27 to October 6, during removal to temporary location at 211 Haverford Avenue, Second Floor.
